Eric W. Kaler
President
In 2011, Kaler became the 16th president of the U. Previously, he served as provost and SVP for academic affairs and VP for Brookhaven National Laboratory Affairs at Stony Brook University in New York. Kaler received his undergraduate degree from the California Institute of Technology and his Ph.D. in chemical engineering from the U.

Katrice Albert
VP, Equity and Diversity
Albert leads the U’s access, equity, and diverse multicultural resources and programs. Albert previously served as the chief diversity officer at Louisiana State University.

Kathy Brown
VP, Human Resources
Brown was appointed VP for Human Resources in 2011. Previously, she served as VP and chief of staff, serving as chief advisor to the president and playing an integral role in establishing and implementing policy at the U.

J.D. Burton
Government and Community Relations
Burton advances the interests of the U system at the capitol in St. Paul, in Washington, D.C., and among community partners. Previously, he was director of government relations for City of St. Paul.

Mark Coyle
Athletics Director
Coyle leads the 25-sport Gopher Athletics program. He also has served as athletics director at Syracuse University and Boise State University and as deputy athletics director at the University of Kentucky.

Bernard Gulachek
VP, Information Technology
Since 1986, Gulachek has served in a variety of operational and strategic technology leadership roles. He is credited with leading many of the information technology services in use at the U today and for working to achieve institutional goals through use of technologies.

Mike Berthelsen
Interim VP, University Services
Berthelsen has served the U for over 23 years, beginning in 1993 as a budget and finance officer, moving to University Services as the assistant VP and CFO and, for the past 10 years, providing leadership as the associate VP for facilities management.

Michelle Behr
Chancellor, UM Morris
Behr leads the UM Morris. Previously, Behr was the provost, SVP for academic affairs, and dean of the college at Birmingham-Southern College. Behr received a master’s degree in anthropology and a Ph.D. in geography from Arizona State University.

Ann Aronson
Chief Marketing Officer
Aronson leads marketing in the Office of University Relations. She manages the U’s brand, and she oversees client and creative services, digital communications, social media, and market research.

Katherine Albert
VP, Equity and Diversity
Albert leads the U’s access, equity, and diverse multicultural resources and programs. Albert previously served as the chief diversity officer at Louisiana State University.

Bernard Gulachek
VP, Information Technology
Since 1986, Gulachek has served in a variety of operational and strategic technology leadership roles. He is credited with leading many of the information technology services in use at the U today and for working to achieve institutional goals through use of technologies.

Mike Berthelsen
Interim VP, University Services
Berthelsen has served the U for over 23 years, beginning in 1993 as a budget and finance officer, moving to University Services as the assistant VP and CFO and, for the past 10 years, providing leadership as the associate VP for facilities management.

Michelle Behr
Chancellor, UM Morris
Behr leads the UM Morris. Previously, Behr was the provost, SVP for academic affairs, and dean of the college at Birmingham-Southern College. Behr received a master’s degree in anthropology and a Ph.D. in geography from Arizona State University.

Ann Aronson
Chief Marketing Officer
Aronson leads marketing in the Office of University Relations. She manages the U’s brand, and she oversees client and creative services, digital communications, social media, and market research.

Katherine Albert
VP, Equity and Diversity
Albert leads the U’s access, equity, and diverse multicultural resources and programs. Albert previously served as the chief diversity officer at Louisiana State University.

Bernard Gulachek
VP, Information Technology
Since 1986, Gulachek has served in a variety of operational and strategic technology leadership roles. He is credited with leading many of the information technology services in use at the U today and for working to achieve institutional goals through use of technologies.

Mike Berthelsen
Interim VP, University Services
Berthelsen has served the U for over 23 years, beginning in 1993 as a budget and finance officer, moving to University Services as the assistant VP and CFO and, for the past 10 years, providing leadership as the associate VP for facilities management.

Michelle Behr
Chancellor, UM Morris
Behr leads the UM Morris. Previously, Behr was the provost, SVP for academic affairs, and dean of the college at Birmingham-Southern College. Behr received a master’s degree in anthropology and a Ph.D. in geography from Arizona State University.

Ann Aronson
Chief Marketing Officer
Aronson leads marketing in the Office of University Relations. She manages the U’s brand, and she oversees client and creative services, digital communications, social media, and market research.

Katherine Albert
VP, Equity and Diversity
Albert leads the U’s access, equity, and diverse multicultural resources and programs. Albert previously served as the chief diversity officer at Louisiana State University.

Bernard Gulachek
VP, Information Technology
Since 1986, Gulachek has served in a variety of operational and strategic technology leadership roles. He is credited with leading many of the information technology services in use at the U today and for working to achieve institutional goals through use of technologies.

Mike Berthelsen
Interim VP, University Services
Berthelsen has served the U for over 23 years, beginning in 1993 as a budget and finance officer, moving to University Services as the assistant VP and CFO and, for the past 10 years, providing leadership as the associate VP for facilities management.

Michelle Behr
Chancellor, UM Morris
Behr leads the UM Morris. Previously, Behr was the provost, SVP for academic affairs, and dean of the college at Birmingham-Southern College. Behr received a master’s degree in anthropology and a Ph.D. in geography from Arizona State University.

Ann Aronson
Chief Marketing Officer
Aronson leads marketing in the Office of University Relations. She manages the U’s brand, and she oversees client and creative services, digital communications, social media, and market research.

Katherine Albert
VP, Equity and Diversity
Albert leads the U’s access, equity, and diverse multicultural resources and programs. Albert previously served as the chief diversity officer at Louisiana State University.

Bernard Gulachek
VP, Information Technology
Since 1986, Gulachek has served in a variety of operational and strategic technology leadership roles. He is credited with leading many of the information technology services in use at the U today and for working to achieve institutional goals through use of technologies.

Mike Berthelsen
Interim VP, University Services
Berthelsen has served the U for over 23 years, beginning in 1993 as a budget and finance officer, moving to University Services as the assistant VP and CFO and, for the past 10 years, providing leadership as the associate VP for facilities management.

Michelle Behr
Chancellor, UM Morris
Behr leads the UM Morris. Previously, Behr was the provost, SVP for academic affairs, and dean of the college at Birmingham-Southern College. Behr received a master’s degree in anthropology and a Ph.D. in geography from Arizona State University.

Ann Aronson
Chief Marketing Officer
Aronson leads marketing in the Office of University Relations. She manages the U’s brand, and she oversees client and creative services, digital communications, social media, and market research.

Katherine Albert
VP, Equity and Diversity
Albert leads the U’s access, equity, and diverse multicultural resources and programs. Albert previously served as the chief diversity officer at Louisiana State University.

Bernard Gulachek
VP, Information Technology
Since 1986, Gulachek has served in a variety of operational and strategic technology leadership roles. He is credited with leading many of the information technology services in use at the U today and for working to achieve institutional goals through use of technologies.

Mike Berthelsen
Interim VP, University Services
Berthelsen has served the U for over 23 years, beginning in 1993 as a budget and finance officer, moving to University Services as the assistant VP and CFO and, for the past 10 years, providing leadership as the associate VP for facilities management.

Michelle Behr
Chancellor, UM Morris
Behr leads the UM Morris. Previously, Behr was the provost, SVP for academic affairs, and dean of the college at Birmingham-Southern College. Behr received a master’s degree in anthropology and a Ph.D. in geography from Arizona State University.

Ann Aronson
Chief Marketing Officer
Aronson leads marketing in the Office of University Relations. She manages the U’s brand, and she oversees client and creative services, digital communications, social media, and market research.

Katherine Albert
VP, Equity and Diversity
Albert leads the U’s access, equity, and diverse multicultural resources and programs. Albert previously served as the chief diversity officer at Louisiana State University.