About Karen Kaler

A native of Nashville, Tennessee, Karen Fults Kaler earned a B.F.A. in communication design from the University of Tennessee in Knoxville.

An accomplished graphic designer, she is one of the University of Minnesota’s most dynamic and engaging ambassadors, on campus, across the nation and around the world.

She also is an active volunteer for University and community organizations, primarily in support of children, education, and ecology.